

DELPHIN IN NANORTALIK

JULY 18TH 2009

LANDING

6:30 PM

Landing to Nanortalik and exploring the city on own hand. Throughout the city there will be different arrangements to attend until 9:30 PM.

FOLK DANCE and KAFFE-MIK, Culture House

7:00 PM - 8:30 PM

“Kaffe-mik” is an old tradition to invite many guests to your home in case of celebration: Weddings, birthdays etc. to drink coffee or tea and taste the famous Greenlandic cake. The guests stay only for 15 to 30 minutes. We will arrange a ‘kaffe-mik’ in the Culture House (public toilets inside).

Greenlandic folk dance in the Culture House. Here is a unique opportunity to experience the lively and quick moving Greenlandic folk dance. Dutch and Scottish whalers originally inspired the dances. They taught their special seaman dances "the reels" to the Disco Bay Es-kimos. Through the centuries, this has developed into the unique folkdance tradition we know today.

CHOIR in the old, wooden Nanortalik Church

7:30 PM, 8:30 PM

Greenlandic choir in the old, wooden Nanortalik Church from 1916. The Greenlanders are well known for their multi-vocal singing.

The slow moving psalms and the merry songs allow you to lean back and let your impressions of Greenland mix with the enchanting singing. The singers are dressed in national costumes.

OPEN AIR MUSEUM

6:30 PM - 9:30 PM

Nanortalik open-air museum: Nanortalik has one of the most unique museums in Greenland, displaying items from the old Inuit culture, the Norse settlements in Greenland from 982 AD and the Danish colonial power 1797-1953. You can easily spend 1-2 hours there. At the summer settlement in the museum area,

DEPARTURE

10:00 PM

Departure from the harbour with good views and photo opportunities of the city.

Admission Fee / Tickets

Folk dance and kaffe-mik	15 US$
Choir the old, wooden nanortalik church from 1916	15 US$
Open air museum	30 US$
One fee / Ticket for all performances	50 US$

